Oracle Long-Term Storage Solutions

Tuesday, 13 December 2016 09:25 (20 minutes)

Volumes of scientific data to be preserved for the long term keep growing at an unprecedented rate while placing ever greater demands on availability, durability, cost, access and management. Oracle addresses those challenges by providing differentiated technologies and solutions that go from enterprise-grade tape to massively scalable storage cloud services, enabling long term preservation and distribution/sharing of scientific data through a variety of hybrid architectures.

Presenter: Mr DEVERCHERE, Philippe (Oracle EMEA Storage CTO)
