The Research Data Alliance (RDA) on practical policies

Tuesday, 13 December 2016 11:00 (20 minutes)

Computer actionable policies can be used to enforce management, automate administrative tasks, validate assessment criteria, and automate scientific analyses. The RDA Practical Policies working group has put together templates of common policies as well as implementation examples of the policies in different systems illustrating best practices.

Presenter: Dr RITZ, Raphael (Max Planck Computing and Data Facility)
